1.4.119
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant Theodore Cottingham, March 20, 2006 12:30 am www.unc.bz

1. Who can see the start of something lovely? Something beautiful? Something of my heart coming about now that was not in the mind of man? I love you. Something of my heart now that comes directly from my heart, from the center of my heart, from the heart of my heart, yea, into the heart of man. I love you and I give you me.

Thou art a priest in the order of Melchizedek and my name is lovely. I love you.

Thou art a priest in the order of Melchizedek and my name is lovely. I love you and I give you me.

Thou art a priest in the order of Melchizedek and my name is King of Kings and Lord of lords. See what I have said.

2. Thou art coming into me a place where no man has been in or seen. Thank you for not being afraid of me. Thank you for coming into me and not placing me in your image but letting me teach you that you are mine expressly. Thank you for your kindness to me. Thank you for that which teaches me about me. See what I continue to express. Thank you.

3. This is just the beginning of something lovely, ever so lovely, ever so sweet; expressionless not, for it is my expression of me and I love you dearly. Who can see the beginning and detect me in my heart, my heart in me and know this is my heart of my heart and my heart coming forth so lovely, in such loveliness? The mature, that's who.

4. Thank you for your love for me and all the times you arise in the wee hours to speak my words and share our intimacy with others. Who can see 40? 40,000, not; 40 million? I love you. Who will not? Only those who close their eyes. Watch me. Watch me.

5. Watch me in the new things that I am doing now with my heart coming forth in such loveliness.

6. Oh the day of new beginnings, oh the day of loveliness, oh the day of my heart come forth. I am excited, delighted, and this is just the beginning of something new, something precious, something lovely: my heart come forth. Yea, watch me. Watch me bring forth a man woman'd not, a man woman'd after my own heart

(1), precious and lovely; above all nations, not; being it/them. I love you. See what I have said.

7. This is the beginning of what I am doing with you forever more not but yea this is the time of my appearing in me and I am Melchizedek in Melchizedek. Thank you for putting/placing no limits on me.

8. Thank you for using technology (3) to communicate all the things that I am doing with you. Thank you very much. Fully.

9. Thou art not limited in that which I now do with you. Unlimitedness now reigns in complete surrender. I love you deeply. I love you dearly. My love heals, my love reigns, precious of lovely. I give you me.

Goodnight all one.

Me

Footnotes:
1. Isa 43:19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.
2. Jer 31:22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.
3. This entire message dictated into my laptop computer using the program Dragon Naturally Speaking 8.0.